

Can I make an appointment to talk about my bike?

Yes, absolutely! Many of our customers prefer to make an appointment to come and meet us here in Bridgwater to see for themselves the range of bikes that we sell and to place their order here in the showroom. This gives the opportunity to spend usually one to two hours discussing the options available with one of our specialist sales team.