

What happens at a bike sales appointment?

You will be measured to assess the size of frame you require and you will get to try a variety of different riding positions to find the one that you like best. You will also be able to take the opportunity to ask any technical questions and to be guided personally through every aspect of your bike build, ensuring that you will end up with the perfect bike.